Quarterly Issues Program Report
3rd Quarter
(07/01/15-09/30/15)

Subjects and Description of Issue of Concern:

1. Crime & Violence
The death toll with in DC limits has already surpassed last year's death rate. We'll discuss what's being done by police to curtail this issue.
2. Culture
We discuss the importance of Volunteerism, the hands on network, and the importance of Catholics within our community.
3. Education/InReach
As the saying goes, education is key. During this quarter we highlight one of the many organizations that are hoping to give back by providing area youth with an opportunity to further ones education.
4. Financial/ Scholarship Benefit
As has been the case for years, the UNCF is a key organization within the African American community. We'll discuss how they continue to make a change. We also focus on the Carrousel Organization that hopes to help feed those in dire need of help.
5. Health
Children are the key to our future. In at least 4 segments we focus on maintaining the health of underprivileged youth. Everything from health care, to teeth, to medicines children should avoid is addressed.

Title: Carrousel

Guest: Kathryn Weaver

Issues: Financial, Homelessness, Youth and Women's Issues

Date: 08/23/2015

Time: 20:07 of a 30 minute show

The Carrousel Program sponsors a program that focuses on the "1 Can A Week, Yes We Can" program which is designed to create an ongoing supply of food donations to help feed the hungry, particularly food insecure children and families. Many Americans are one paycheck away from being on the streets or are suffering greatly, as a result, of the economy, natural disasters and the many issues that foster poverty and homelessness. If many people give a little bit all the time, there should be more than enough food to feed people in our communities.
